

Werkstatt für Neues

Pure creativity

Our Werkstatt für Neues is empty. A room that is open to everything. Everything the creative team requires is stored in big cupboards. The team will create its own room and adapt it to the current requirements in the process of working. Just like an artist's studio, the Werkstatt für Neues offers a thousand possibilities for creative work, both indoors and outdoors. And the unusual work materials play their part when it comes to opening up your creative horizon.
